

Frey
A Maersk and
Danske Commodities Venture

Student analyst to be the “first line of defence” in corporate compliance department.

Do you want to get hands-on experience with maintaining and developing the Risk and Compliance department in an international commodity trading company? Then this is your chance to join a new venture owned by Maersk and Danske Commodities and have a direct impact on the success and development of the company.

After thorough training and under general supervision by the Finance & Risk Manager you will be responsible for performing the onboarding process of new counterparties. The onboarding process includes KYC screening and credit assessment of counterparties. You will become part of a team of skilled and ambitious colleagues.

As you will become a compliance specialist you will provide crucial directions to and work directly with the front office sales team and the finance department. Your excellent individual problem-solving and analytical skills are used to review counterparties and understand implications of financial sanctions. The job will provide you with insights to compliance- and risk management in general.

Furthermore, you will have the possibility to expand your areas of expertise within financial accounting by following-up on counterparty exposure and credit-risk related tasks including contribute with solving various ad-hoc tasks within the finance department.

Your responsibilities:

- Perform the counterparty onboarding process, including KYC screening and credit assessment
- Maintain and develop risk and compliance tools and models
- Identify and report all risk and compliance issues
- Prepare various risk and compliance reporting
- Assist the finance team with various ad hoc assignments
- Can work at least 15+ hours per week

Your qualifications

We expect that you:

- Are enrolled in a relevant financial or legal university level education
- Are among the top students in your class
- Have great skills in Microsoft Office Suite
- Have an excellent command of English, which is our corporate language

We offer:

- A unique chance of directly impacting the development of a joint venture between two highly reputable and successful companies
- Flexible working hours also around exams
- Professional and personal development in an international environment
- Skilled colleagues who will contribute to creating a steep learning curve
- Office in the heart of Aarhus

Personal skills:

We expect that you:

- Take responsibility
- Are efficient, independent and dedicated
- See opportunities where others see problems
- Live our values and have a positive attitude towards tasks, both large and small
- Want to and are capable of making a difference within Frey

Job start will be as soon as possible. We will be screening candidates on an ongoing basis.
