

Commercial Student Analyst to take a central role in a global trading team

Here is your chance to join the coolest start-up in Aarhus and be an integral part of our core commercial team. In this position, we offer a high degree of responsibility and valuable, practical experience from your first day.

We strive to create a supporting and empowering environment where you can succeed and grow with the rest of our high-performing teams. We will help you to expand your skill set, develop your abilities and achieve your ambitions. If applicable to your education, we offer the opportunity to have an internship in Frey as part of this position.

If you have grit and desire to make a difference, you will hit a steep learning curve, gain your own areas of ownership, and become a key part of driving our commercial activities forward. For the right candidate and subject to stellar performance, full-time employment is on the table after graduation.

The role and responsibilities:

- Take an active role in the core commercial activities including lead generation, marketing, sales, trading, and contract execution.
- Supporting the commercial team including analysis and development of business opportunities.
- Drive selected commercial and strategic projects from kick-off to delivery.
- Identify insights and perform and prepare analyses, presentations, and material for the sales team that enable data-driven decision making.
- Participate in furthering and developing existing and new data-driven processes and systems.
- Identify areas for improvement, pitch and implement solutions.
- Various ad hoc tasks in the commercial department.
- Can work at least 20 hours per week on a flexible schedule.

Your skills and qualifications:

- You are among the top students in your class in a relevant education program with 1-3 years left.
- You thrive with independence and are ready to actively take responsibility and ownership.
- You have a structured approach and see opportunities when faced with challenges.
- Your mindset matter more than what you know. If you have a go-getter mentality, want to make a difference and is a team player, you will have the right foundation to succeed in Frey.
- You speak and write English fluently.

What's next?

Job start will be as soon as possible, and we will be screening candidates on an ongoing basis. If you have any questions about the position, please contact Alexander Bjerre Simonsen, Director of Sales, at abs@freycommodities.com or +45 2178 7472 for more information

Please send your application, including cover letter, CV, grade transcript and/or other relevant material, to: job@freycommodities.com, marked "Commercial Analyst".

